BIO

Troy grew up on a row crop and livestock farm in southcentral Iowa. He learned the importance of a strong work ethic at a young age and has carried that same mindset into his adult years. After graduating from Grand View College, Troy spent 9 years with Ruan Transportation managing trucking terminals and customer accounts. He spent the next 9 years with Target Corporation on the executive team and assisted in the successful start-up of 2 regional distribution centers. Due to his strong passion for agriculture, Troy made the change and commitment to obtain his real estate license and move to Colorado to sell real estate. He has been selling farm and ranch real estate in Colorado, Nebraska and Kansas since he made the transition into real estate in 2011. During that timeframe, he sold irrigated, dryland, CRP, and farm acreages while developing strong relationships. He owns land in CO, NE, and IA and harnesses the knowledge to assist buyers and sellers of farmland, pasture, CRP, and recreational land. In his spare time, Troy enjoys spending time with his wife Dena and their 3 children, running, working on muscle cars, and working on the farm.
